

Roll a Silly Creature

Draw a big shape on your paper. Leave some room all around it. This will be your creature's body.

Roll the die. This is the number of eyes your creature will have.

Roll the die to see how many noses your creature will have.

Roll the die to see how many mouths your creature will have.

Roll the die to see how many ears your creature will have.

Roll the die to see how many arms and legs your creature will have.

Would you like your creature to have tails? Roll the die to see how many.

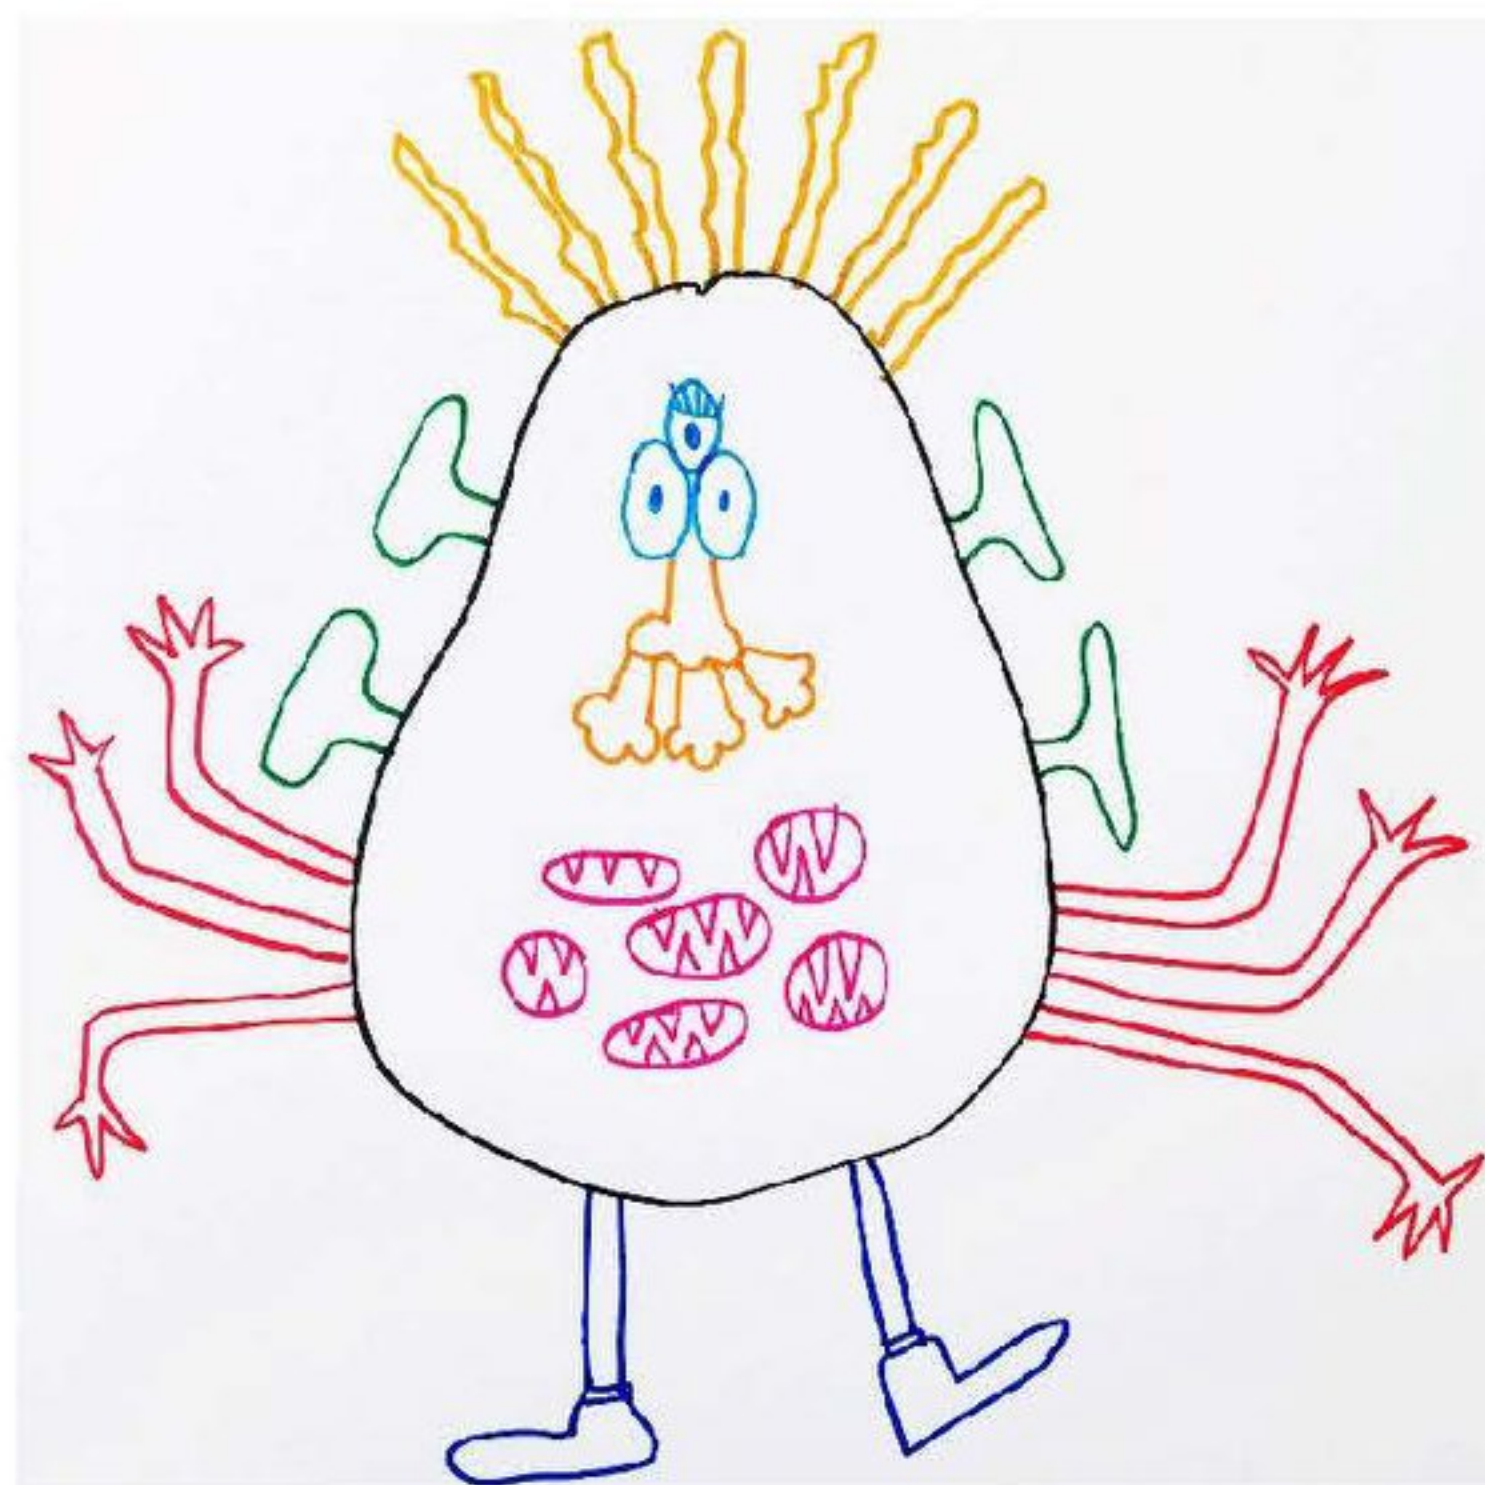

Add hair if you like.

What is your creature's name?

Draw a background if you like.

Snap a picture and send it to
