Upon receiving a complaint, a case will be initiated, and the owner will be contacted. If voluntary compliance is not met, the reporting party must complete the following Animal Complaint Log as directed in order for the matter to proceed to a hearing. Note: Reporting parties must be willing to testify in open court.

- 1) This log must be legible, contain at least one week of activity, be completed and returned to our office before we can proceed further.
- 2) Times and dates listed must be specific. Only document instances of barking that exceed 5 minutes in duration that is heard from within your residence. The recording must be made from within your residence.
- 3) Attempt to capture on audio or video recording at least one instance of the animal making noise for a minimum of 5 minutes. State the date and time at the beginning of each recording.
- 4) Once the form is completed, return to the Richland Police Department, 871 George Washington Way, Richland to the attention of the assigned Officer. Please submit your recording with the completed activity log.
- 5) It is imperative that documentation be completed and submitted to assist in confirming a violation exists.

RMC 7.03.340 Animals Disturbing the Peace

It is unlawful for any person owning or harboring an animal to allow or permit such animal to cause prolonged or continuous noise by frequent or habitual howling, yelping, barking or otherwise noisy conduct, which shall unreasonably interfere, annoy, injure or endanger safety, health, comfort or repose of others. An animal is harbored in violation of this section if, without provocation, it makes noise which can be heard continuously within an enclosed structure off its owner's property for more than five minutes and which annoys, injures or endangers the safety, health, comfort or repose of others.
