THE DEPARTMENT

The Richland Police Department is organized into four divisions, each led by a Police Commander or Professional Staff Manager: Administrative Services, Investigations, Operations, and Professional Staff. The Department receives added assistance from the Richland Police Department Foundation, which supports the community and staff through the Community Care and Professional Development funds.

The Police Department is staffed with 72 commissioned officers and 22 professional staff, focused on community service and safety. Reporting directly to the Police Chief is the Deputy Chief and an Executive Assistant. The FY 2024 budget for the Richland Police Department, including all divisions, is approximately $21.8 million. The Operations Division responded to approximately 38,000 calls for service last year.
